Hi Sandra -

I would appreciate it if you would let Dean know about this situation (see item below). I'm sure he would not want members of his fan group on Facebook making libelous statements about citizens of his riding (in this case, me).

I may not agree with Dean on certain issues, but I have always treated him with respect. Disagreeing with a person's political views is very different from attacking the person. I expect the same level of conduct from Dean's political supporters, particularly given that I am a citizen rather than a politician. In fact, I do not even belong to a political party.

Thank you very much for your assistance with this matter.

See you at Grace!

Ann

Hi Douglas -

A news item on the "We Love Dean Del Mastro" group contains some false and libelous information about me. It is true that I publish a blog "One Woman One Blog." All other information is erroneous. Would you kindly correct this news item at your earliest convenience?

Best regards,
Ann Douglas

cc. Dean Del Mastro, MP

"Recently, there have been many personal attacks against Dean. Ann Douglas has made many groundless accusations in her blog (one woman one blog), and recently, in an ad on kijiji, called him fatso, and goof. This clearly demonstrates the maturity level of some of his opponents."
